APPROVAL OF 4 POWER PACTS NOW IS ASSURED

Pitman Amendment Defeated By 50 To 27 Count

FINAL VOTE 24TH

Opposition Abandons Hope Of Success, Belief

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, March 15.—The Senate today defeated the Pitman Amendment to the Four-Power Treaty by 50 votes to 27.

The amendment was similar to the two already rejected but contained a provision that the outside nations should participate in any discussion of international controversies arising in regard to the Pacific.

Washington, March 15.—The leaders of the opposing parties have agreed to take a final vote on the Four-Power Treaty on March 24 and have arranged that no further reservations or amendments will be voted on until Tuesday and that the duration of the speeches will be limited. The final vote will be taken without a debate as soon as the Senate meets on Friday. The Administration leaders welcome this agreement as it indicates that the Opposition has abandoned its plans for prolonging the fight and ratification of the pact is now assured.

BANQUE CHIEF'S BROTHER GRILLED AT PARIS INQUIRY

As Aide To Foreign Minister He Tried To Prevent Crash

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15.—It is reported from Paris that M. Philippe Berthelot has appeared before the Disciplinary Council of the Foreign Ministry to explain the part he played in the affairs of the Banque Industrielle de Chine.

He is charged with administrative misdemeanors in sending telegrams, designed to save the Banque, of which his brother was president, without the knowledge and authority of his chief, the Foreign Minister.

Meanwhile fresh interest has been created by the discovery that the dossier had been tampered with.

The Echo National which took the initiative in calling attention to the suppressed documents threatened that if the occasion arose, it would publish the omitted papers.

The Disciplinary Council has reached a decision which it is communicating to Premier Poincare but it remains secret. Premier Poincare has the power to modify the Council's conclusions if necessary, as the sole responsibility of the ultimate decision rests with him.

AS MANY ARMED MEN IN EUROPE NOW AS IN 1913

Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson Opposes Reduction, However

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15.—An interesting contribution to the debate on the Army estimates in the House of Commons was the maiden speech of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, who said he doubted the wisdom of at present reducing Britain's fighting troops. He referred especially to the situations in India, Hongkong, Egypt and Ireland.

The result of the present proposals, he said, would be that the army would not be sufficiently strong to prevent or win a war but just weak enough to lose. He asserted that despite the fact that Europe was broken up into small states, there were as many armed men in Europe now as in 1913.

Sir Donald Maclean urged that the proposed reductions should be effected as soon as possible and should be followed by others.

ST. PATRICK'S SHAMROCK

St. Pat should come to Erin,
Across the twilight years,
And see the wonder morning,
When Ireland dries her tears.

He knows the love in Ireland,
Of home and liberty,
He'd vote the Celtic ticket,
To keep the Free State free.

He'd be at home in Ireland,
For now in County Clare,
They sing the ancient Gaelic,
And speak it everywhere.

King Niall raided Britain,
To flout the might of Rome,
'Twas there he captured Patrick,
And took the captive home.

Some say he was a Scotsman,
But others call him Gaul,
They're sure he spoke the Gaelic,
And wrote the Celtic scrawl.

For Patrick was a slave boy,
Before he turned a saint;
He tended sheep in Antrim,
Until he broke restraint.

He wandered far in Europe,
To learn the Christian way,
And then converted Ireland,
From Druid's pagan sway.

But what was hard for Ireland,
Was unity in three,
'Til Patrick plucked a Shamrock,
And showed the Trinity.

And what must come in Ireland,
Is just that unity,
That Patrick with his Shamrock,
Revealed as Liberty.

WAR LORDS TOLD TO AVOID SHANSI AS BATTLEFIELD

Governor Yen's Troops Ready To Maintain Neutrality

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, March 13.—It is learned from reliable sources that Governor Yen of Shansi province will continue his policy of hands off as far as the affairs of the Central Government are concerned. Chang Tso-lin and Wu Pei-fu may fight if they like in any part of China except Shansi without interference from Governor Yen.

In any case the Shansi troops will be used merely to keep the peace of the model province. One of the unfortunate results of this policy, however, is the tax which the governor will undoubtedly have to pay to the victorious party whoever he may be. Such is the price of peace, but the Tuchun thinks it is worth it.

Peking, March 13.—General Feng Yu-hsiang of Shensi has been mobilising his troops with a view to placing them at the disposal of Wu Pei-fu in the latter's coming maneuver or campaign, which ever the political decision may be.

General Feng has denied any anti-foreign feeling and has expressed friendliness for the American teachers who have been offering him assistance. He is criticised, however, for having permitted the anti-foreign riots to get out of hand so that for several days foreign inhabitants in Sianfu were unable to venture upon the streets.

The cause of these riots is said to have grown out of difficulties in the middle schools where one of the foreign instructors disciplined a student and trouble was started by the young student agitators.

Anglo-Persian Oil Co. Under Debate

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15.—In the House of Commons today, a resolution authorising payment of the uncalled amounts due on the Government shares in the Anglo-Persian Oil Company was agreed upon and the bill founded thereon was read for the first time.

Sir Frederick Banbury said that if there were oil fields which it was necessary to develop in the interests of the Navy, the Government should take over them themselves and not give protection and their name to a commercial company. He urged the Government to sell the shares.

Commander Hilton Young disclaimed any intention on the part of the Government to invest a single further penny in private enterprise.

$25,000,000 FIRE SWEEPS DOWNTOWN CHICAGO

Skyscrapers In "Loop" District Are Leveled

FIREMAN KILLED

Officials Believe That Incendiary Started Blaze

(China Press Service)

Chicago, March 16.—Damage estimated at $25,000,000 was done, one fireman was killed and one injured, and 25,000 people are jobless as the result of a fire raging in the heart of the business district here. At 3 o'clock this morning it was still burning furiously despite the efforts of every bit of fire apparatus and fireman in the entire city.

It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin and one man, who is alleged to have sent threatening letters to the owner of the store where the flames started, has been arrested.

Every building in the district bounded by Clinton, Canal and Van Buren streets and West Jackson boulevard was gutted and two out of five large buildings across Jackson boulevard, including the twenty-one story Chicago, Burlington and Quincy skyscraper, were completely wrecked, tumbling into the streets a mass of twisted steel and broken stone.

Despite the efforts of the firefighters the Central Office Building, housing the Mercantile Trust and Savings Bank, whose vaults contain over $6,000,000 in money and securities, was also gutted by the flames. A police guard was thrown around the building as soon as the flames reached it to prevent looting.

Traffic for a mile on all sides of the burning district has been halted and the entire district roped off and guarded by police and police reserves.

According to City Fire Attorney S. P. High the fire was of incendiary origin. Mr. High, after an investigation early this morning caused the arrest of a man who is alleged to have sent threatening letters to a store owner where the flames started.

Early today, after the fire had swept out the entire block and leaped across Jackson boulevard, burning northward, it was said its progress had been stopped and no fears were entertained that it would spread farther.

Today's was the second big fire in Chicago's history. The famous Chicago fire of October 8, 1871, supposed to have been started when Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lantern in a barn, caused a property damage of $196,000,000 and made 100,000 people homeless. Over 17,500 buildings were gutted by the flames and 250 people lost their lives.

France Will Aid Fight On Typhus

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, March 15.—The Chamber of Deputies, after hearing a favorable report by M. Nobelmaire, passed the bill presented by the Minister of Health, M. Strauss, opening up an extraordinary credit of 2,500,000 francs in aid of the fight against typhus in Poland and Eastern Europe.

95 Killed In This Theatre When Roof Fell

A general view of the huge crowds that surged about the wrecked Knickerbocker Theater building and at times taxed the Washington, D. C. police and soldiers to the limit of their ability to handle them. It was necessary to keep a strong detail immediately in front of the main entrance to prevent frantic relatives and friends from plunging into the wreckage.

CANADA TO HOLD SEMENOFF UNTIL U. S. GIVES WORD

Anti-Bolshevik Leader Stopped On Arrival At Vancouver

(China Press Service)

Vancouver, B.C., March 15.—Ataman Semenoff, the Siberian Anti-Bolshevik leader who arrived aboard the Empress of Russia was held aboard ship while immigration officials pondered whether to permit him to land or not.

Ataman Semenoff later was permitted to land if he would agree to remain in Vancouver awaiting word from Washington as regards the decision of officials there, as to whether he will be allowed to enter the United States.

Britain May Dip Into Rubber Industry

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15.—Interest in the possibility of Government intervention in the rubber industry was revived by a statement in the House of Commons today that discussions on the rubber situation were proceeding between the colonial authorities of British-Malaya and the Dutch Indies in London.

Rubber circles recognise that nothing can be done unless joint action between the Malay States and the Dutch Indies is secured. They express the opinion that such action will take the form of export licences.

In the view of the low working costs of the Ceylon plantations the attitude of the Ceylon companies is viewed with some misgivings, but as Ceylon's planted area is small compared with that of the Malay States, it is suggested that a joint Malay States and Dutch Indian agreement excluding Ceylon is still possible if Ceylon dissented to the limitation of exports.

Chinese To Use Force In Taking Ex-German Wharf From Japanese, Report

Yangtsze Dock To Be Taken Over By Defense Commissioner On Monday Following Alleged Refusal Of Nipponese To Vacate

Force is to be employed by the Chinese Government to dispossess a Japanese firm of a valuable wharf property at Pootung, according to a report that was circulated yesterday among Chinese officials. The property in question is the Yangtsze wharf, formerly owned by a German navigation company and, according to the report, it is to be seized by the Chinese on Monday.

The Yangasze wharf was one of the Shanghai properties of German interests that were taken over by the Chinese Government following the declaration of war on Germany. Under the terms of the Sino-German treaty that was concluded last year all sequestered German properties taken over by China automatically revert to their former owners and it is understood that the present purpose of the Chinese Government is to return the wharf property to its former owners.

After the seizure of the Yangtsze wharf it was leased by the Chinese Government to the Japanese firm of Kaiyosha Company with offices at 5 Canton Road. This lease expired last year and, according to report, when the Japanese company found itself unable to obtain a renewal of the lease it nevertheless insisted on retaining possession.

Negotiations through diplomatic channels, principally at Peking, have been going forward for several weeks in connection with the wharf property and in the meantime, it is said, the Japanese concern has been clinging tenaciously to the property.

According to the report of yesterday the Defense Commissioner has been given specific instructions from the Waichiaopu to take action and has notified the Japanese company that the wharf will be seized on Monday.

IF YOU'RE IRISH 'TIS TIME TO BE WEARIN' GREEN

Big Feature Of St. Patrick's Day Will Be Dinner-Dance At The French Club

In common with the rest of the civilised world Shanghai residents who are sons and daughters of Erin today will observe the great holiday of St. Patrick and it follows that shamrocks and green neckties will blossom forth together.

The big public celebration of the day will take the form of a dinner dance this evening at the French Club which will be one of the year's most important social events. This is being given by St. Patrick's Society and the elaborate preparations for the event that have been going forward for days now have all been completed.

The dinner is to take place at 7:45 o'clock and while it is in progress a program of addresses, songs and other numbers will be given. The dancing will begin at the conclusion of the dinner. Mr. T. P. Givens has been in charge of general arrangements for observance of the holiday.

LOAN PLANS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 13.—According to reports from Chinese sources the Ministry of Finance intends to utilise the proceeds of the $96,000,000 bond issue as follows: Chinese short term loans $46,000,000, Foreign loans, $42,400,000, Immediate administrative, military and police expenses, $7,600,000.

SOLDIERS GAIN FULL CONTROL IN RAND DISTRICTS

Agitation For General Strike Subsides; Smuts Gets Credit

(Reuter's Service)

Johannesburg, March 15.—A different atmosphere prevails as a result of the master strokes of General Smuts who surprised the most sanguine in re-establishing law and order.

The Fordsburg stronghold was the most formidable containing a series of deep trenches and rifle pits. When the operations were concluded many women and children were found to have been without food for two days.

Johannesburg, March 16.—The military aspect of the industrial upheaval is now regarded as ended, except for the clearing up proceedings. The Moderates are anxious to return to work, not only in the mines but generally.

The Industrial Federation and various Unions have not confirmed the recent order calling for a general strike and consequently some leaders who throughout have been opposed to the revolutionaries are now advocating the resumption of work and the submission of the position, which may need reformation, to the Trades Unions.

Soldiers To Leave As Soon As New Guards Are Ready

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 13.—The Japanese Legation announces that the sale of land by the Japanese authorities in Shantung has been discontinued. The Legation also states that the withdrawal of their troops from the railway area will begin as soon as the Chinese guards are ready to take over the duties of protecting the line. Arrangements have been made for all the Japanese troops to be withdrawn by May 20.

PRINCE OF WALES OPENS MILITARY SCHOOL IN INDIA

Advises Cadets To "Get Off On Right Foot" In Life

(Reuter's Service)

Dehra Dun, March 13.—The Prince of Wales arrived at Dehra Dun this morning and stayed three hours. His Royal Highness opened the Royal Military College for Cadets. In the course of a speech he said that India's services during the war had won for the rising generation the right to hold the King's Commission and that the path to the highest ranks in the Indian Army were now open to all.

From his own experience the Prince could say that the first few blows on the anvil of life give the human weapon a temper which carries it through life's battles.

He hoped that those responsible for the administration of the College would keep before them the ideals of the English Public Schools and also foster and maintain the old Indian spirit of reverence which bound master and pupil together.

His Royal Highness advised the pupils to work hard and play hard, to live an upright life and to maintain untarnished, the martial traditions of India's fighting-men.

Later the Prince reviewed the Dehra Dun garrison in a march-past and presented colors to the Cadets of the Royal Military School at Sanawar. The Prince then left for Gujraola.

CHINESE FLYER KILLED, BUREAU'S FIRST FATALITY

Lieutenant Sun Crashed In Effort To Avoid Collision

(Chung Mei News Agency)

Peking, March 13.—The body of Lieut. Sun, the first Chinese aviator to be killed, was carried in state on Saturday afternoon to a temple in Peking where it will rest until transported home. Lieut. Sun was killed at 8:30 o'clock last Thursday morning when he attempted to avoid another plane while landing and fell to his death.

Both his arms and legs were broken and his skull was fractured. The passenger in the plane was badly shaken up and is at present in hospital. His injuries are said to be not serious.

Lieut. Sun was an aviator of much promise and was about to take up the more advanced work of flying the large Vimy planes. He had already had 75 hours in the air and was considered to be a capable flyer. In attempting to avoid another plane which was coming toward him from another direction, he dove but neglected to switch on his motor again, thereby losing his momentum and falling in a vertical dive.

General Pan, chief of the air department, and the entire staff at Nanyuan, including all the foreign pilots, accompanied the funeral precession. The record of the Chinese Air Department has thus far been excellent, this being the first fatality.

JAPANESE ARE OUT IN FORCE FOR ELECTION

American And British Rate Payers Manifest Little Interest In Voting

Estimates given yesterday after the closing of the voting place of the election of members of the Municipal Council indicated that nearly all the Japanese rate payers had cast ballots. A fair sprinkling of Portuguese also had voted, a few of other foreign nationalities and several Americans and British.

The election is to continue through the day today and those who neglected to go to the polling place yesterday are reminded that if they wish to cast ballots they must do so between the hours of 10 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock this afternoon. The single polling place is in the Municipal Building on Kiangse Road.

Nine Councillors are to be elected to serve for the municipal year of 1922 and ten candidates are in the field. These are Messrs. S. Fessenden, H. H. Girardet, A. J. Hughes, W. P. Lambe, H. W. Lester, A. B. Lowson, V. G. Lyman, S. Sakuragi, H. G. Simms and G. N. Wilson.

BLIND STUDENTS OF FOOCHOW TO APPEAR HERE

Eight Of Them Who Are On Way To England Will Stage Entertainment

Illustrating the remarkable achievements of pupils of the Foochow Institution for the Blind a public exhibition by eight of them who are now en route to England is to be given at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday night at 8:15 p.m.

The group of eight passing through Shanghai will give a series of concerts in England under the auspices of the Church Missionary Society to raise funds for their school.

The School for Blind Boys in Foochow was started in 1896 by Mrs. Wilkinson of the Church Missionary Society. She had been sent to China as a nurse and was in charge of a county dispensary near Foochow.

String making was a local industry and soon she learned the art and taught the children. Then she visited other schools for the Blind in the hope of finding a way to get the Brail System adapted to the Chinese. She studied the system and returned to Foochow, taught the older children, and helped to translate the Bible and other books into Brail.

A kindergarten was started and regular curricula for primary education as put forth by the Bureau of Education was adopted, the full course covering eight years.

The Curricula includes Chinese and English history and literature, arithmetic, geography, writing in Brail, gymnastics and drill, and games.

Three of the graduates have become preachers; four have entered the Theological College of Fukien University; ten have become teachers; and one has been invited to Canton, there to establish a school for Blind on the lines of his Alma Mater.

String making, matting making, basket making, etc. were started very early in the history of the school.

All pupils at eleven years of age began to put half time in the industrial department and half time in school and at the time of graduation it is decided whether the pupil shall be an industrial or a professional worker.

Twelve years ago, at the Nanking Exhibition, they carried off the gold medal for general proficiency. Two years ago Mrs. Wilkinson was awarded a gold medal by the Chinese Government, for the work done for the blind of South China. Pupils came from many of the southern provinces to the school.

At the present time, out of over 100 pupils, 25 earn their own living. Five of these are married and have little families of their own, whom they support.

The school at Foochow is supported entirely by voluntary contributions.

Old Chapei Houses To Be Demolished To Widen Highways

Compulsory demolition of old houses along Ta Tung Road and Kung Ho Road in Chapei was ordered by Mr. Hsu Chien-ching, Commissioner of Public Works and Taxes for North Shanghai, yesterday. Orders were previously given by the Commissioner to dismantle dwellings that obstructed the widening of the highways. Several have ignored the instruction; and yesterday, the Chapei police authorities were asked to assist in enabling the servants of the public works department to build fences round buildings which are in the way.

RESUME HEARING OF CLAIM AGAINST HOSPITAL TODAY

The hearing of the suit for Tls. 41,386 brought by a Chinese contractor, Wong Kor-sung, against the Shanghai General Hospital will be continued before Judge Peter Grain in the British Supreme Court today and is expected to be concluded on Monday.

The claim is for extra work alleged to have been done on the new wing of the Hospital and for materials which it is alleged were not supplied when needed. Mr. M. Reader Harris appears for the plaintiff and Mr. R. N. Macleod for the defendants.

Trouble between himself and the designing architect, Mr. S. J. Halse was the subject of testimony given by the plaintiff at yesterday's hearing. The contractor declared that last year when he presented himself at Mr. Halse's office to present accounts and ask for payment he was pushed out of the office and told that he would be pushed out again if he returned. Plaintiff also gave testimony regarding labor and material costs claimed to have been incurred and said that he had lost about Tls. 10,000 and had encountered much difficulty owing to the trouble with the architects.

The hearing will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning.

COMMONS HEARS BOTH SIDES OF INDIA SQUABBLE

Montagu Defends Himself Against Many Attacks

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15.—In the House of Commons today the motion of Mr. T. P. O'Connor drawing attention to the lack of co-ordination in the actions of the Government resulting in Mr. Montagu's resignation was fully debated but subsequently withdrawn. Mr. O'Connor said he regarded Mr. Montagu's sanction of the publication of the Indian Government's communication a deplorable error and he thought Mr. Montagu was almost fanatical on the subject of Indian Moslem opinion. He called on the Government to tell the Indian people that rule of the country everywhere would be based on the protection of the weak and oppressed.

Mr. Montagu in a long defense manifested bitterness at the methods adopted by the Cabinet in dealing with his alleged grave constitutional offense and denied that he had misinterpreted Lord Curzon's letter.

Mr. J. H. Thomas criticised Mr. Montagu for not stating the situation to the House of Commons in the first instance. He also criticised Lord Curzon for not reporting to the cabinet the knowledge that Mr. Montagu had sanctioned the publication of the telegram.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain pointed out that Mr. Montagu had never impressed on his colleagues the necessity for an urgent reply to the request for publication of the telegram.

Negotiations Fail In Engineer Strike

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 15. — The negotiations between the shipbuilding employers and the negotiating committee of the unions ended suddenly as a result of the delegate conference of the men refusing to accept the employers' amended offer of a cut of 16s. 6d. of the 26s. 6d. war bonus by instalments instead of in a lump sum.

The employers claim that the original position has been restored, namely, that the cut will occur today. The negotiating committee has reported the position to the Minister of Labor.

ENVOY GOES TO TOKIO

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 13.—Mr. Ma Ting-liang, Consul-General at Seoul, has notified the Government that he started on Thursday last for Tokio to assume his new post as Councellor of Legation and Charge d'Affaires.

Cabinet Urges Re-Unification

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 15.—The Cabinet today sent a long telegram to the provinces urging the necessity of reunification as soon as possible. It pointed out that the Washington Conference had agreed to increase the Customs duties to an effective five percent and eventually to seven and a half percent which is estimated to give an additional revenue of some $30,000,000.

This, however, will not remove the necessity for economy, the most important question of which is the disbandment of superfluous troops.

Moreover, now is the time to adjust domestic differences so that the people of China can work together for the best interests of their country. Once unification is achieved, other outstanding matters could be attended to in turn. The provinces should also forward suggestions in that connection.

STUDENTS GIV'NG PROGRAM TO AID CHINESE BLIND

An entertainment for the benefit of the Institution for the Chinese Blind will be given by the students of the Normal School of Hygiene and Physical Education of the Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow afternoon, March 18, at two o'clock.

The program will be held on the spacious grounds of the school, located at 37 Kinchow Road, near the end of Tongshan and Kwenming Roads. If the weather is unfavorable the program will be postponed until Saturday, March 25, at the same hour. Tickets are on sale at the Normal School and at the National Y. M. C. A. at 3 Hongkong Road.

Bureau Investigates Hoodlumism Charge

The Commissioner of Foreign Affairs has just concluded an investigation into an incident alleged to have occurred at Woosung when the motor car of a British subject is said to have been stoned because the owner refused cumsha to coolies who pulled the car out of the mud.

The British subject reported the incident to the British Consul-General, according to the Eastern Times, and the Commissioner made an investigation upon representations from him.

According to the Commissioner's report no soldiers or police, as alleged, were in the group. The foreigner's car became stuck in the mud on the military road near Woosung, he explains, and a number of coolies pulled it back on the road. They asked for $3 cumsha but the foreigner gave them only $2, whereupon they threw stones and mud at the car.

CANADIAN R'WAY NETS $34,000,000 PROFIT FOR YEAR

Earnings Satisfactory Despite Heavy Decrease In Gross

(Special To The China Press)

Montreal, Feb. 15.—The Canadian Pacific Railway's earnings for the year ending December 31, 1921, show a satisfactory increase in the net returns, despite an unbroken decrease in gross since February. The net returns for the year were $34,201,740, as compared with $33,153,044 in 1920, an increase of $1,048,695. Gross earnings for the year were $193,021,854, a decrease of $23,916,494. This increase in net in the face of marked decreases in gross, is the result of drastic scaling down of operating expenses, which in 1921 were $158,820,114, as compared with $183,488,304 for 1920. This saving is better visualised in the fact that the ratio of operating expenses to gross income was 81.20 percent as compared with 85 percent in 1920.

The figures for the year were accompanied by those for the month of December, which continued to show marked decreases from the figures of the similar month of the previous year, and there is also a decrease in both gross and net as compared with the figures of the preceding month. Net earnings for the month are set at $1,917,781, compared with $3,671,801 in November and $2,222,072 for December, 1920. The best feature of the report is seen in the fact that the December decrease in both gross and net is smaller than those reported a month ago.

To Publish Notes On Rehabilitation Of Weihaiwei Here

Simultaneous publication of the notes exchanged between Great Britain and China on the return of Weihaiwei will be made shortly, according to an agreement made by Wellington Koo, China's plenipotentiary at the Washington Conference and Downing Street.

Dr. Koo recently informed the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at Peking that he had agreed with the Chief of the Far Eastern Section of the British Foreign Office to publish the notes at the same time, according to a Peking telegram.

BANK HAS SAVINGS DEPARTMENT FOR R. R. REDEMPTION

Chai Commercial And Savings Bank Instals New Counter For Patriotic Move

A special department has been created by the Shanghai Commercial and Savings Bank to save funds for the redemption of the Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway, which was agreed upon between China and Japan at the Washington Conference. The department will be known as the Savings Department for Railway Redemption. Already several thousand dollars have been deposited with the bank for that purpose both by employees of the bank and the bank's customers.

While it was primarily established to encourage the employees of the bank to save for a patriotic purpose, popular demands have prompted the management to instal the special counter for the attention of the patrons.

Deposits of any amount may be made with the bank within the next five years, the time agreed to by the Disarmament Conference and announced in a recent Presidential Mandate, authorising the public ownership of the line provided the total amount of $30,000,000 is raised by or before the end of the fifth year. The savings will bear interest at eight percent per annum. Pass-books are issued to the depositors so that periodical deposits may be made. The funds thus raised will be utilised only for the purchase of the stock of the Shantung railway and not for any other purpose whatsoever, it is announced.

If the plan to redeem the line by popular subscription is abolished, the money turned in to the bank will be returned to the depositors together with interest to date, according to the announcement made.

THREE ARRESTED AS SUSPECTS IN POLICE TRAGEDY

Three men arrested yesterday by Detective Inspector Cruickshank and believed to have been connected with the gang of armed robbers responsible for the death Wednesday night of Chinese Police Constable 1063 on Tongshan Road will be charged in the Mixed Court today.

The Tongshan Road raid, police investigation yesterday disclosed, came following the receipt of threatening letters by the shopkeeper at No. 168 whose establishment was entered. The letter, believed to have been written by a man living near the Arsenal who has not yet been arrested, demanded the payment of $5,000 and gave directions as to the withdrawal of the funds from the bank and their transmission to the writer. If the money was not forthcoming, it was stated, the proprietor would be shot. When the quartet of bandits entered the place one of them is reported to have said:

"You know what we have come for," and the shopkeeper states that he immediately connected them with the letter. At this juncture the proprietor's wife screamed and the Chinese police constable responded to her cry, arriving outside the shop in time to seize one of the men as they dashed out. He had the man in custody and was starting down the road with him when another of the gang came up behind him and shot him in the back. A Sikh policeman who was on duty a little further along the road did not have time to get to the scene in time to apprehend any of the robbers.

One of the trio arrested yesterday was found to be in possession of an automatic pistol and ammunition.

C. P. C. 1063 joined the force June 8, 1918 and was due for promotion to the rank of second class constable on April 1 of this year.

Sun's Army On Move North, Says Changsha Report

Hunan Governor Asked To Have Supplies Ready

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, March 15.—A Changsha telegram dated the 13th instant reports that a circular telegram that has reached there says that Dr. Sun Yat-sen yesterday left Kueilin, advancing northward, and has appointed General Chao Heng-ti as Civil Governor of Hunan and requested the latter to make full preparations for the supply of provisions. It adds that the authorities of Changsha remain quite indifferent.

RATEPAYERS BODY TO HOLD MEETING ON MARCH 30TH

The annual meeting of the Shanghai Ratepayers Association will be held on Thursday, March 30, when members will be called upon to pass the report and accounts for the past year and to discuss matters of importance which may be brought before the ratepayers' meeting this year.

The meeting will be held in the Royal Asiatic Society's lecture hall at 5:30 p.m. and a full attendance is desirable. Those willing to serve on the Committee for the ensuing year or those who have any suggestions to make are requested to communicate with the secretary, Mr. W. Robbins, as soon as possible.

The circular notifying members of the impending meeting contains correspondence with the council on the subject of the concrete sewer pipes put into use here, the Association having transmitted a report made in Vancouver, B.C., to the effect that such materials placed in use there had proven a failure.

The Council's reply, defending the use of concrete pipe—which was first put into service here in 1891—is commented upon in the circular as being a welcome assurance but at the same time in some respects not altogether convincing.

CHARGES POLICE TORTURED MEN IN ROBBERY CASE

Attorney Linebarger Accuses Chinese Members Of Force With Intimidation

Accusations of intimidation and torture at the hands of Chinese members of the police force were made yesterday by counsel for the defense in the case of two men charged at the Mixed Court with participation in an armed robbery committed at 384 East Seward Road on October 31 last.

At a previous hearing of the case police testimony was given that the two defendants had made confessions of their complicity in the robbery. Mr. P. M. Linebarger, for the defense, heatedly repudiated the confessions declaring that they were wrung from his clients only after torture had been applied by a Chinese detective. Yesterday Mr. Linebarger again vehemently took up the case for his clients, submitting that they were the victims of a vendetta, inspired by two men previously convicted—principally on their testimony—of robbery and carried on by Chinese members of the force.

Mr. Linebarger stated that he did not for a moment believe that the foreign section of the police department would countenance the maltreatment of prisoners, but he could not say the same for the Chinese. He suggested that a Chinese detective present in court had more than an official interest in the case and he hoped the court would investigate. Assessor Jacobs, who sat with Magistrate Loh to hear the case, rebuked counsel for some of his remarks.

The charges against the two accused were dismissed because of insufficient evidence, but the court ruled that they evidently knew something of the robbery and ordered that they sign personal bonds.

by THOMAS DIXON

Life is built upon realities, not romance; this is the theme of "The Foolish Virgin," Thomas Dixen's famous novel that has been screened as Miss Clara Kimball Young's second Selznick-Picture offering. The story deals with a young girl whose ideas of life are founded on the romantic works of fiction which she is so fond of reading. She is deceived into marrying a man with criminal tendencies who, possessed of a lust for money becomes a burglar.

Her efforts to redeem the man she loves lead to many intensely dramatic situations with a powerful climax.

Anatole France Attacks War Spirit

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, March 12.—At a session of the League of Rights of Man in France in honor of Anatole France, that eminent French writer delivered a speech, in which, with all the strength of his talent he attacked the spirit of war at present predominant in France and appealed for the creation of a new Europe.

"The most terrible thing," he said, "is that the war spirit continues to live in the country after the war itself is finished."

Public School Takes Lead In Inter-School Soccer

Win Over Hanbury School Gives Them Six Straight Victories

The Shanghai Public School closed their inter-school football season Wednesday with six straight wins, by defeating the Seniors and the Midgets of the Thomas Hanbury School. The match between juniors went to the Hanbury boys. Scores were Seniors: Public School 9, Hanbury 1; Juniors: Hanbury 11, Public School 5; Midgets: Public School 17, Hanbury 0.

The games were not played under ideal conditions as a strong cross wind was blowing. The Public School opened in the Senior match with the wind in their favor but they found it difficult to exercise much control over the ball, and it was not until after fifteen minutes' play that they secured their first goal through Cumine. At this stage, however, the Public School seemed to become more accustomed to the wind, and goals came rapidly—no less than six being scored before half-time.

In the second half, the Hanbury School were kept largely on the defensive but occasional spurts by the forward line were made. The Public School, however, were obviously superior to their opponents and three more goals were added. Shortly before time the Hanbury School forwards broke away and the center-forward scored with a well-placed drive. Cumine (4), Levis, Madar, Selmsen, Jesu and Whynne were responsible for the Public School goals.

The victory places the Public School at the head of the Inter-School Senior League with six matches played and won—the total scores being 43 goals for and 3 against.

The Juniors' match was a well-contested game, the play being on the whole very even except in the matter of scoring—where the advantage lay with the Public School. During the first half, with the wind in their favor, the Public School scored three goals. In the second half, the Hanbury School were pressing strongly but could not succeed in scoring—Parker, the S.P.S. goal-keeper, playing a brilliant game in goal. As an outcome of raids into their opponents' territory the S.P.S. added two further goals to their score. Symons (2), Jacob, Shekury and Kabelitz were the scorers.

Both sides are still well below the Senior standard of School football, the forwards in particular needing to steady themselves in shooting and to introduce a little more confidence and dash into their play.

The T.H.S. midgets were quickly attacked in the final match and the game resolved itself into a shooting competition against the T.H.S. goal. At half time the score was 9 to nil for the Public School, goals being scored by Green (3), Turner, Madar (2), and Tuttelman (3).

In the second half, the Public School were at first disconcerted by the wind and the T.H.S. goal-keeper made several saves. Then the Public School team scored several times in quick succession and added eight more to the score through Kock (2), Hertzberg, Green (3) and Wood (2). During the season the S.P.S. Midget team have scored 53 goals and have had three goals scored against them. The corresponding scores for the S.F.X.C. are 41 and 2.

SUZANNE PLAYS AT NICE

Paris, March 15.—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen is taking part in the lawn tennis tournament at Nice.

Sporting Editor's Letter Pox

Sporting Editor,
THE CHINA PRESS:

Sir: In today's edition of your paper you have an article containing the latest baseball news in which officials are elected and team captain proposed.

With all due respect to any one suggested for the position of team captain, would like to suggest one man who could fill the position, J. H. Scott, well known to Shanghai fans as a pitcher, but what is not so well known is that he can hold down second base better than it has been held down for several years.

Scott has a long record of experience with first class teams of the Pacific Coast, and the executive ability to fill the position. Have heard from a reliable authority that he will not pitch this year, but do not doubt that he can be induced to fill that lamentably weak spot at second.

You speak of official hopes for increased membership, it can be increased far beyond the thousand mark by having nomination and election of club officials by vote of the majority of club members, this is all settled by the old officials and committee and ball players, other members having no more to say about club affairs than the three words, "Here's my ten."

Hoping for the best,
BASEBALL.

HARRIERS RUN BIG HANDICAP RACE TOMORROW

The Shanghai Harriers Club's 8-Mile Championship and Sealed Handicap will be competed for tomorrow starting from the American School at 3 p.m.

All the Club's best runners are expected to try for the championship honors. The favorite for the event is George Rose though there are others with more than a passing chance in J. L. Mears, H. F. Wilson, E. Fisher, C. C. Reneman and a number of others. Should R. L. Newman run he will be among the first flight at the finish. There are also a lot of promising juniors who will run well.

The handicap will be framed by Messrs. Bartlett, Wilson and Reneman, the competitors all start from a level mark being timed in and not knowing their start until the finish of the race.

American Academy Wins At Tsingtao

(China Press Correspondence)

Tsingtao, March 13.—The American Academy won its first athletic contest with another school on Friday of last week when the team met and defeated the team from Ming Teh Middle School in basketball by the score of 15 to 2. The game was played on the outside court of the latter school, and was attended by a large number of spectators from both schools. Flewelling, Kipps and Adams did the best work for the winners while Wang was the best player on the losing side. Messrs. Lee and Glauque of the two schools served as officials.

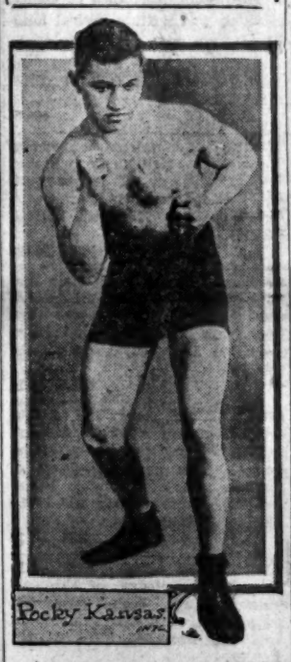
He Almost Won A Title : One Punch Interferred



ROCKY Kansas, the sensational lightweight from Buffalo, New York, who met Benny Leonard, world's title holder, in a decision bout in New York City and lost by a single punch, after eleven rounds of whirlwind fighting. The important punch was a left hook. It took all the fight out of Kansas and saved Leonard his crown.

Holliday, Former Shortstop, Returns

Walter Holliday, former crack shortstop of the local baseball club, has returned to Shanghai. Holliday made his last appearance in a Shanghai uniform in the Summer of 1918 and was always a factor in the local lineup. He is a former secretary of the Club.

ST. JOHN'S AND SOOCHOW TO PLAY FOR BASKET TITLE

While the Shanghai Foreign Basketball League ended in great enthusiasm, the game was taken up quitely by the East China Intercollegiate basketball union, and is now being played with large interest. The series commenced a week ago but with half of the games played out of town local fans have not had opportunity to follow closely the progress of the play.

A brief summary of the games played no far, with their respective results and standings follows:

Soochow University played four games without defeat, beating Shanghai, Nanking, Nanyang and the South-eastern University. The team plays its last match, which most likely will be the deciding one of the tournament against St. Johns, on the S. J. U. court, on Saturday, the 25th.

St. Johns have not played so many games but is held to be as good as Soochow. Their team won over the South-eastern University by a 60-16 score, and are expected to count an easy win over Nanking on Saturday.

The Shanghai College five has lost only to Soochow. Their team then stepped out and beat both Nanking teams and are looked upon as strong contenders. Mr. Hipps, the star of the school's faculty five in the Foreign League is coaching the student team.

Nanyang lost one game to Soochow and equalised later by a win over the S. E. U., leaving their standing at .500 percent.

Nanking has lost the two games they have played against Soochow and Shanghai. The S. E. U. has lost all four games.

The schedule for the remaining games are as follows:

March 15, Nanking vs. S. J. U, at S. J. U.
March 20, Nanking vs. Nanyang, at Nanyang.
March 22, Shanghai vs. S. J. U., at Shanghai.
March 25, Shanghai vs. Nanyang, at Shanghai.
March 25, Soochow vs. S. J. U., at S. J. U.
March 31, Nanyang vs, S, J, U, at S. J. U.

It has been a hard problem to secure referees for all these important games. Jackson and McCloy have acted for all the outside games while T. T. Zee and C. G. Hoh were referees for all the local games so far played. Thanks are due to them for their good refereeing which has had a great part in making the series a success.

Soccer Matches Of Mar. 4 To Be Played Tomorrow

Club And Engineers Meet In Feature Game On Polo Field

Tomorrow's football card with its postponed fixtures from March 4 has one match listed that is certain to draw most of the soccer fans in Shanghai. The match in mind is that between the Football Club and the Engineers, in the first division. The Club is now leading the league by a fair margin and the Engineers are runners up. The game will be played on the Polo Grounds.

Two good first division games will be played at Hongkew. The Customs oppose the Police there, and the Portuguese meet the Recs.

In the second Division the leaders, the Club Seconds are booked against the Jewish Club on the Football Club Grounds. The Recs play the Portuguese seconds on the former's field, and the Navy and the Public School clash on Widow's Monument field.

The latter game undoubtedly will see the closest competition among second division elevens, for the School since their win to the finals for the Scottowe Cup over the first division Engineers and Recs, are being ranked among Shanghai's best teams, and the Navy are always good, sometimes fit to rank with the best.

In spite of the racing tomorrow, the East Gate will be open throughout the afternoon, excepting when ponies are passing that entrance in races. The entrance from the Race Club enclosure however will be closed until after the last race.

The list of fixtures and referees for tomorrow's games follow:

First Division

Engineers v. S. F. C. on Polo Grounds. Referee: Mr. Hampson.

Customs v. Police, at Hongkew Park. Referee: Mr. Landers.

Portuguese v. S. R. C. at Hongkew. Referee: Mr. Bridges.

Second Division

S. F. C. v. Jewish, S. F. C. ground. Referee: Mr. Marshall.

S. R. C. v. Portuguese, S. R. C ground. Referee: Mr. Wegener.

Navy v. P. School, Wid. Mon. ground. Referee: Mr. R. Jones.

Home team mentioned first.

In the event of the Jewish R. C. being unable to play, the Rangers will play the S. F. C. second XI.

Only the Recs so far have announced their players for tomorrow. They are:

First eleven opposing Customs at Hongkew: Borras, B. Smith, Biggs, A. Ferris, Emmamoden, Ollerdessen, Witschi, McKenzie, A. Sofoulis, Evans, Stacey.

Second eleven opposing the Jewish Club on S. R. C. ground: Kinkelbacher, Marshall, Petterson, Gifford, W. Ferris, Cooke, Emmamoden, G. Brockett, Boxburgh, Kellner, Johansson.

FUNERAL OF CHINESE POLICE THIS AFTERNOON

The two Chinese police constables, killed by armed robbers while in execution of their duties will be laid to rest today, with a joint procession extending from the Mortuary at Range and Fearon roads to guild centers off Yates and Carter Roads.

The first victim, C. P. C. No. 438, was killed by a revolver shot fired by an armed robber whom he had stopped and questioned in the Wayside district Monday night. The second, C. P. C. No. 1063, lost his life in attempting to overtake fleeing bandits who had attacked the premises at No. 168 Tongshan road on Wednesday night. Just as the constable was about to arrest one of the gang, an accomplice shot him in the back.

The funeral cortege today for the two constables will leave the Fearon Road Mortuary at 2:30 p.m. and will proceed along Range, Honan, Nanking and Bubbling Well Roads, where the party accompanying the remains of C.P.C. 438 will proceed South on Yates Road into the French Concession to the Chihli Guild, while that accompanying C.P.C. 1063 will go North on Carter Road into Chapei.

The murders of the two officers have excited much sympathy among foreign and Chinese members and friends of the Police Department, and it is expected that the procession accompanying the two officers will be unusually large. Many of the higher officials of the force will march with the mourners.

Mukden Chief Sends 89 Engineers Here To Study At Arsenal

Mechanics Will Stay Three Months And Then Return To Man New Plant

Eighty-nine engineers of the Fengtien army arrived here yesterday to enter the Kiangnan Arsenal and take an advanced course in engineering. They will remain with the local institution for three months and then return to Mukden to form the staff of a new $500,000 arsenal being constructed by Marshal Chang Tso-lin.

The men were dressed in smart blue uniforms. They have received a certain amount of education and have already worked in various factories as mechanics and will now specialise in the manufacture of arms and ammunition. They are under the supervision of Major Chia Ching-shen.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING CREATES SALES

The experience of many large business establishments is that their volume of sales is in proportion to the volume of their advertising. An extensive advertising campaign intelligently directed has the resultant effect of creating sales in vast quantities. Emerson's' maxim of "hitching your wagon to a star" is literally and practically applied by the modern successful business man who hitches his business to newspaper classified advertising, particularly the widely read and influential. The China Press is the favorite newspaper with advertisers. The fact that The China Press carries the printed message into so many homes gives our advertisers a tremendous advantage over advertisers in other newspapers.

Special Notice to Mariners

NO. 623.

CHINA—EAST COAST.

SHANGHAI DISTRICT.

YANGTZE RIVER—TSUNGMING CROSSING.

Decreased depths—Buoys to be moved—Caution.

NOTICE is hereby given that a recent resounding of the Tsungming Crossing, North Channel Entrance to the Yangtze River shows that the Crossing has shoaled and that there is now a least depth of 12 feet between the Crossing and West Spit Buoys.

As no alternative channel is yet available, the following buoys marking the present Crossing will be moved on or about the 21st March, 1922, to provide a crossing with a least depth of 14 feet:

The Crossing Buoy will be moved about 2½ cables S. 74° E., from its present position, its characteristics remaining unchanged.

The West Spit Buoy will be moved about 6 cables S. 84° E., from its present position, its characteristics remaining unchanged.

CAUTION.

Mariners are warned that the Tsungming Crossing may be expected to shoal gradually, and that vessels should therefore navigate the vicinity with caution.

All bearings given are magnetic and depths are those of low water of extraordinary spring tides.

Hankow Market

The British Chamber of Commerce at Hankow write as follows in their weekly circular dated Hankow, March 8.

FINANCE

Bar silver rose from 32 1/16d. ready, 31 7/8d. forward to 32 5/8d. and 31 3/4d. and dropped to 32 1/16d. ready, 31 5/8d. forward and recovered to 32 5/8d. ready and 32 3/4d. forward at which rate it remained on the 8th inst. Sterling T. T. rose from 3-1 1/2d. to 3-3d. on the 8th instant with sellers over rates. 4 m-s L/c advanced from 3-3d. on the 2nd to 3-4 3/4d. on the 8th. New York-London cross rate dropped from 443 3/4 to 438 3/8. Chinese market rates: Shanghai Tls. 97.45. Local currency $10,425. Native interest 7% per annum.

EXPORTS

Business thoughout is dull. Small purchases of sesamum seed are reported at advanced prices. Wood oil and tallow are both very firm, while cow hides are easier. A fluctuating exchange has somewhat hampered merchants and this coupled with a general tendency of market towards apathy has resulted in checking business to a large extent.

IMPORTS

Piece Goods:—The market is easier in sympathy with Shanghai auction prices. A few sales from stock are reported but enquiry on the whole is small. Clearances fairly good.

Yarn:—The market is dull and there is nothing of interest to report.

Peking Worried By Suicide Epidemic

(Chung Mei News Agency)

Peking, March 13.—An epidemic of suicides in Peking is reported in the vernacular papers and the Municipal Police of administration is about to take measures to try and remedy the situation. An investigation will be held as to the causes of these tragedies in the hope that some means will be found for preventing the continuation of the death toll which self-destruction is ex-

U. S. Destroyers To Be Laid Up In June

(Special To The China Press)

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

March 16, 1922

Spot bar silver was down ⅛d. and forward ¼d. in London yesterday.

The New York price advanced to 63⅞ cents, and the London-New York cross rate to 433.

The only change in the official quotations this morning was a drop in the Franc rate to 770.

Our market opened firm this morning, business in Sterling being done at 3-3⅛ for March-April and 3-3 for June.

Gold Dollars in the morning were done at 70½ for March-April and 70¼ for forward delivery.

In the early part of the afternoon, however, there were sellers of Sterling at 3-3⅜ for March-April and 3-3¼ for May-June.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the same time at 71 for March and possibly April, and 70⅝ for forward delivery.

Late in the afternoon rates eased off slightly and the market closed abobubtb steady, with sellers of Sterling at 3/3⅛ for March-April and 3/3⅛ for May-June. There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 71 for March and 70⅝ for April.

The Continent sold silver in London yesterday and India bought, the market closing uncertain.

New York report their market as easy, with sellers predominating.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in thier exchange circular for week ending Wednesday:

Exchange:—The London price of silver at 33¼d. is ⅛d. higher than this day last week. Our market has ruled steady on the whole, but has at times been somewhat erratic owing to the fluctuations in the New York-London rate, which was reported as low as 427⅜ yesterday; the closing quotation of 432⅝ steadied the Gold Dollar market which closes with sellers of T.T. on New York at 70. Sterling also closes steady with sellers at 3s. 2⅞d. Business in regard to imports and exports has again been on a very limited scale.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Spot and Bar Silver Tls. 34,262,000, a decrease of Tls. 635,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars 230,320,000, an increase of $1,140,000.

Estimated value in Tls. 56,092,000 as against Tls. 67,731,000 held at this time last year.

Why The Powers Continue Recognition Of The Peking Government

BY JOSEF W. HALL

PEKING, today, is but the departed shade of a government. It is safe to say that less governing influence over the nation at large rests in Peking today than at any moment since the abdication of the Manchu dynasty.

Hitherto, for pragmatic motives, there has been a conspiracy among the self-seeking factions to support the semblance of government at Peking. The time has come, however, when partisanship has grown so bitter that the rivals are unable to co-operate even to this limited degree, and have thrown all prudence and dignity to the wind in their mutual jealousy. Today the hand of every government official is potentially against every other for evil. Each avidly seeks to discredit the other. Even among those ephemerally joined together by opportunism continuous cross and double-cross is the feature of the game, which knows no rules and has no umpire.

The Washington conference has directly contributed to this increased bitterness of factionalism. One of the avowed purposes of the nations sitting in that conclave was to assist China, by provision of unhampered opportunity and financial revenue, to procure a strong, united government. The immediate result of the lifting of outside aggressive pressure has been to cause the factions to drop such pretense of internal unity as they had hitherto maintained, and the result of the prospective increase of Customs revenues to the central government (collection by foreigners forestalls hope of absorption by provincial chieftains) has been to make Peking a bone of bitter contention between the rival cliques who had theretofore regarded cabinet-making at Peking as a not-too-serious pastime rather than a vital interest. Whatever clique controls Peking will receive the new customs revenues, and will have a proportionate advantage over the rival cliques. For in China, above all other countries of the earth, money is power. The only bounds upon the military chieftains are their lack of revenues to support their cooolie hordes and to bribe the underlings of rivals.

Government, in Peking today, exists neither constitutionally nor de facto. In no other country of the world would the powers continue the formalities of recognition under such circumstances. There are good reasons for the making of an exception of China. These I will set forth shortly. I must first give proof for the first statement in this paragraph: that government does not exist in Peking, either constitutionally or de facto.

The President, one year and half ago, by his own mandate, confessed that his holding of office is merely ad interim, and without constitutional sanction, since the parliament which elected him was immedately disbanded. He called for parliamentary elections throughout the provinces, setting the date for convocation of the new parliament in May of last year, and announcing that his resignation would be before parliament upon the date of its assembly. Parliamentary elections were held, in harmony with the mandate, in some eight out of the twenty-two provinces. Either popular feeling or military influence has prevented the pretense of elections in the remaining provinces. The date for convocation has been repeatedly set forward, and it would appear that the matter has at last been effectually forgotten. Some of the new electees have come to Peking and are receiving government pittance, while two hundred members of the previous and disbanded parliament are still on the government payroll—by way of prevention of their departure in a body for Canton.

Constitutionally, we have in Peking an illegal President, no Parliament, and an unsanctioned Cabinet. But, dropping all legal and moral quibbling, what have we from the de facto standpoint?

We have an old man in the President's palace, but he is without power to appoint an official, direct a policy, or express an opinion. Through his delegates he goes begging on his knees from one warlord to another. For the past two months rivalry between these chieftains has prevented their permitting him a single administrative move, however much they might be inclined at heart to humor the old gentleman and give Peking an extended lease of its bit of "face."

We have a Premier, Liang Shih-yi, who, under threat from one war-lord, dares not come to his capital but is in refuge in a foreign concession in Tientsin; and under pressure from another with whom he has financially involved himself, dares not resign. We have no acting premier, and have only a foreign minister, Yen Wei-ching, acting as chairman of the cabinet under duress and continued protest upon his own part. He has stated that his refusal to act beginning two days from now is final, and that he is in earnest in regard to his resignation from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as well. Therefore there exists today no responsible government head.

We have no Minister of Education, and a Vice-Minister who refuses to assume responsibility for the upkeep of the eight government schools in its own capital which have been the sum-total of the educational enterprise of the alleged government of China, and which schools are again threatened with closure.

We have a Ministry of Communications which shows a deficit for the fiscal year just closed amounting to fifty percent of its gross income, and whose head has not attended office for six weeks. This Ministry has some millions of pounds of foreign obligations due or on the point of falling due, which it is absolutely without prospect or plan of meeting. Its authority over the railway lines and in part over the telegraph lines properly under its administration has ceased to exist, and provincial heads or military chieftains are appropriating the revenues, not only net, but gross, of these communications facilities. The Ministry even lacks funds with which to replace wear and tear upon these facilities. While facetious officials are experimenting with wireless telephones and airships the vital communications equipment of the nation is rapidly depreciating. Up to one year ago this Ministry was collecting millions of dollars of surplus revenues from the railways each year, which were subject to no audit. The communications clique waxed wealthy. It is but natural that the chieftains in the Provinces who do the actual ruling should consider themselves rather than arm-chair politicians in Peking, entitled to these spoils, and should refuse longer to allow them to go to Peking.

The Ministry of Interior no longer occupies more than a purely honorary position, as Provincial Administrator. The Ministry of Finance long since ceased to function as a collector of revenues, and became merely a bureau for the flotation of foreign and domestic loans. The Minister of Justice recently appointed by the Minister of Finance as head of the Commission on Loan Investigation for the purpose of allaying popular suspicion, has created a sensation, by turning on the Minister of Finance and his subordinates and driving them into the Foreign Concession at Tientsin with threats of exposure and impeachment. Curiously enough he is backed by the most powerful war-lords who seem to enjoy discrediting their puppet Government at Peking. Chang Tso-lin volunteers to present proof that the preceding Chief of the Finance Ministry cleared fifty thousand dollars a day on his job and that his patron, the former Premier, went out of office with a tidy profit of five million dollars. Meanwhile the Ministry of Justice itself is practically in-operative because of the recurrent strikes of the judges of the various courts who are many months in arrears in their salaries. Hundreds of law cases are awaiting adjudication while those involved suffer from the suspension of the courts; and even decisions handed down weeks ago are not being enforced.

The Ministry of Navy long ago became a sinecure, the Ministry of War a joke. The Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce does nothing for agriculture and subsists from extortion-money levied upon promoters seeking to register commercial enterprises, sound or unsound.

The only operating Ministry is that of Foreign Affairs. It continues to function partly because of the devotion to duty of its Chief and Staff, and partly because it is the one department of Government with which Tuchuns and politicians have hesitated to tamper. There is still a widespread feeling in China that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is the principal bulwark against foreign guns. However, the character and energy of the Foreign Minister and his associates do not mitigate the farcical nature of the position in which this one department, unbacked by the other required departments of Government, is placed. Nor do the Legations appear in a less farcical position when dealing with the foreign office as if it actually constituted a department of a controlling government. Correspondence between the ministers plenipotentiary and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs regarding outrages committed upon foreign citizens in China is the climax of inanity.

As to the financial situation of the Government we need not speak here. This phase at least is well known to the world, especially in that portion which has money invested in defaulted loans. However it should be pointed out that within the last three months the Government shares in the second of the two Government banks have passed into the hands of an erst-while subject war-lord and that those of the first banks have already been prejudiced. As a matter of fact the Peking Government no longer owns anything except the buildings in which it pretends to operate, the upkeep expenses—such as light, heat and water—of which it is unable to meet. One chieftain appropriates a government bank; another appropriates a national railway.

It is safe to say that neither Mexico nor Russia ever passed through a time when they had less semblance of a de facto Government than Peking is today.

Why then do the foreign powers continue to recognise Peking? There are several reasons. First, if Great Britain, America, and possibly France, want to keep Japan out of China they are compelled to continue the ordinary diplomatic formalities of recognition in Peking. It is obvious that if the Powers should declare that no Government exists in Peking, Japan would declare that she would have no way to hand back Shantung, inasmuch as there would be no recognised Government to which to hand it. Some say that the Powers should recognise Canton in place of Peking as the authoritative Government of China. It would be ridiculous to expect Japan to hand Shantung to Canton. And if the powers transferred recognition to Canton, they would either have to move Canton up to Peking, which would be manifestly impossible in the face of the opposition of militarists, politicians, and people north of the Yangtsze river; or move the Legations down to Canton, which the powers, having with considerable difficulty and expense entrenched themselves in Peking since the Boxer uprising, decline to consider. Shantung of course is but one of many cases to which the same principles apply.

Again, Chinese propaganda is too clever to allow the true situation of Chinese affairs to enter the comprehension of the foreign offices in America and Europe.

And so we are left to the alternative that the present situation will continue, subject to occasional relief or aggravation, until forces other than diplomatic which are working toward the regeneration of the Chinese nation, bring veritable, in contrast to theoretic, improvement.

MRS. MAIA'S PENSION

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS

Sir: We have a saying in Portuguese which reads: "Errar e dos homens, mas teimar e dos burros" (to err is human, but to be obstinate is of the asses), and with this, kindly allow me, Mr. Editor, to reply for the last time to "Fairplay."

It is proved, first of all, notwithstanding "Fairplay's" amusement, that Mrs. Maia receives a pension from the State, and that the Portuguese Government has got the money to pay that pension. Now, let me deal with the intricate question of exchange, which is upsetting "Fairplay's" mind.

It is not necessary for any one to travel so far as London or New York to buy or sell Escudos. One needs only go to Macao, where they are sold at the rate of 6.12 per dollar. This, of course, does not directly concern my argument, for I do not care a straw whether the Escudo may be worth one penny, £10 or more in Shanghai.

What "Fairplay" should know is that Government officials, civil, military and naval, as well as pensioners get their money at a fixed rate of exchange, viz 450 Reis to a dollar, and I challenge anybody to contradict this statement.

Mrs. Maia being a pensioner must necessarily be treated as other pensioners, and therefore were she in Macao, for instance, where the currency is the dollar, a dollar for her would be the equivalent of 450 Reis, and not less.

But she is presently in Lisbon, where one Escudo is one Escudo, as much as in England one £ sterling is one £ sterling, though in China the rate of exchange may be, as it was two years ago, 9/3 per Tael.

I feel confident that Mrs. Maia would not change her 300 escudos now for dollars, as nobody in England did certainly change £ into Tls. when the exchange was 9/3. This, after all, is common sense, pure and simple.

In conclusion: I would like "Fairplay" to read what under the heading "Madureza de Viagem" appeared in O Liberal, 3rd Series, No. 17, of the 2nd instant, page 2, paragraph 6, in order to see that, for a Government official, 300 Escudos is equal to $666.66.

For your perusal, Mr. Editor, I enclose herewith a copy of the paper in question, with my assurances that in writing to your esteemed daily I have not tried to amuse any one of your readers. I am, Sir, Yours etc.,

V. W. VICTAL.

Shanghai, March 16, 1922.

PORTUGUESE AFFAIRS

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS

Sir.—Madame Maia was accorded a blood pension by the government of 700 escudos per month. The escudo, which before the war was the equivalent of a gold dollar, has since the end of the war depreciated so much that it is today quoted in Macau at 6.11 to the dollar. You can, therefore see that the sum of 700 escudos converted into local currency shows only a pittance of a little over $100, a sum which judging from reports in the Portuguese home papers, is hardly enough to keep body and soul together in these days of sky-high prices.

I cannot, in view of the above, imagine what reasons prompted your correspondent to write to you anent the subscription that was being raised here on behalf of the above lady, considering that, as it was not compulsory, if he did not feel like giving, he could very well have thrown the circular into the waste paper basket. That he should write about it in the way that he did, makes me believe that he can be only a Portuguese by accident of birth only.

REST FOR MOTHERS

How many babies wake up just about the mother's bed-time and keep her busy for a good part of the night. The mother may not see anything apparently the matter with the child, but she may depend upon it that when baby is cross and sleepless there is something wrong, and the little one is taking the only means he has of telling it.

Under such circumstances Baby's Own Tablets are just the friend needed. They contain no opiates, but send baby to sleep simply because they remove the cause of his sleeplessness and make him feel well and comfortable. They are recommended for teething troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, colic, fever, indigestion and worms; they promote appetite and regular development.

Sold by chemists, or by mail at 60 cents the vial, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

THE FIRST BOOTLEGGER

Bottled Beer was discovered by accident. During the reign of Edward VI. Dr. Alexander Nowell was the headmaster of Westminster School. When Mary came to the throne she sent a party of soldiers to arrest him at his country house. When they arrived the doctor was fishing, with a stone bottle of ale placed near him in the hollow of a tree. A servant came to warn him, whereupon Nowell fled across the meadows, and after many adventures succeeded in reaching Holland.

After Mary's death Nowell returned, and quite by chance discovered the bottle of ale that he had left so hurriedly many years before. He sipped the liquid cautiously, and found that it was better than any he had ever tasted.

That night he collected all sorts of bottles and jars, filled them with ale, and placed them in his cellar. He had discovered bottled beer!

I WISH I DID

Inspector (to little girl in front row): "What is your name?"

Little Girl: "Iona."

Inspector: "No, your surname."

Little Girl: "Please sir, I would rather not tell you."

Inspector: "Come, come, you needn't be afraid of me."

Little Girl: "Are you sure you won't laugh?"

Inspector: "Quite. Of course I won't laugh."

Little Girl: "Please, sir, it's Ford."

MUDGEE!

The Indian that died at the age of 137 a few weeks ago has little on Mudgee.

Mudgee is a place where Methuselahs do abound, yea, verily, for it is full of ancient folk whose memories go back to the time when Mudgee, a now flourishing Australian town, was little more than a tree and a field.

There is Mr. Henry Gawthorne, who starts work with the sun, and if there is light enough, will climb trees and pick apricots while you and I are yawning over bridge or poker. Old Charlie Wilson recalls boyhood fears of a court-house which no longer exists. Mrs. Mary Macrae was born in a district where there had never been a white baby before—though there are plenty there now. And "Dad" Millett is another ancient light of Mudgee who recalls the time when he was attacked by robbers in the bush and escaped into the arms of a doctor, who extracted thirteen bullets from his body.

The old men of Mudgee are something like the old men of Norfolk.

"We never die in Naarfolk," an ancient resident of that county said to me once.

"What do you do?" I asked.

"Oh," he replied, "we just go out!"

GO UP ONE!

To a professor who asked, "What would King Alfred, if he were alive now, think of the Home Rule Bill?" a boy returned the admirable answer, "If King Alfred were alive now he would be too old to be interested in politics."

JUST STORIES

Neil Kenyon will have to look to his laurels. I have always regarded him as the best Scottish joke-cracker on the halls—since Sir Harry Lauder ceased to be one of our regular entertainers—but there is one, Scot Sanders, who runs him very close.

S.S. reeled off a number of capital yarns quite recently, and among his best were some hard hits at his fellow-countrymen. If we consider Scotsmen "close," it is because they delight to tell us that they are.

Two Scotsmen, says S. S., met outside an inn, and entered.

"Well," said one, putting his hand in his pocket, "what's it going to be—rain or snow?"

Another hit at a Scotsman in his reference to a fellow-countryman who was so mean that he always kept his eyes closed to save the wear and tear of his spectacle.

But all Scot Sanders' wit was not directed against Scotsmen.

"I knew a girl once," he exclaimed, "who was the tallest thing you ever knew. She was so tall, that if she got her feet wet in summer, she never got a cold in her head till Christmas!"

Wives came in for their share. "I know a man," he said—what a lot of people these stage comedians know!—"who threw a hundred knives at his wife every evening for a living. He threw the knives so that they just missed her head. It was a great temptation!"

One thing I will not forgive S. S. for, namely, this joke: "I once saw a boy fall into a bread-pan. It was the first time I had seen the son sink in the yeast!"

Horrible, isn't it?

Correspondence

but lacking all the principal characteristics of his race. A Portuguese gentleman, for instance, would never have dreamt of attacking publicly something that was being done on behalf of a lady who had been made a widow under such horrible circumstances. A Portuguese patriot would neither have thought of discussing his national affairs—what is called washing "dirty linen" in the press before an unsympathetic foreign public.

That the public is bound to be unsympathetic, vide the stinging remarks which were very unjustly levelled at the whole Portuguese community, in response to the opinions manifested by a Portuguese, and therefore not representative of the whole community.

Referring to various correspondents, I beg leave to remind them that to a Briton, pride of his British nationality is quite as it should be, because he considers it "his glorious heritage"—but to men of Portuguese blood and traditions and bearing Portuguese names, whom accident of birth only made them British subjects (where is the heritage part in such cases?) such pride of nationality is better respected when kept within themselves, than when flaunted before us in public.

May I request you, before closing, to stop any further correspondence on this subject, which cannot interest your readers of other nationalities. Yours faithfully,

C. M. R.

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS

Sir:—"Fairplay" in a letter published in your today's issue wishes to elucidate, but very wrongly, on the subject of Portuguese money, and I crave a little more space in your paper to put things right.

1,000 Reis being equal to 1 Escudo
300,000 Reis are equal to 300 Escudos and 1 Escudo being worth 4/5¼
equal @ 3/2¼ Tls. 1.39
300 Escudos are worth £66:11/3
equal @ 3/2¼ Tls. 414.94
or @ 72.5 $572.33

I have given here the value in English Currency of the Escudo in Gold (the paper Escudo is only worth 3/4) for the simple reason that Government officials' salaries are paid in gold, and one is right in assuming that Mrs. Maia's pension has also been granted on this basis.

Mrs. Maia's pension, however, is not $572.33 but $666.66 (about $700.00 as I first said) as our Government officials and pensioners are paid at a fixed rate of exchange, which in China is 450 Reis to a Dollar.

Of course, "Fairplay" and Co. know nothing about the fixed rates of exchange I am referring to, and to further enlighten them (a very hard job, indeed) I draw their attention to an article signed by Captain Albuquerque in a Macao periodical, published on the 2nd of this very month, wherein, referring to the salary of the Director of the Public Works Department, he clearly stated that 300 Escudos were equal to $666.66 (i.e. 450 Reis to a Dollar).

I suppose I have put things clear enough without going to the trouble of making use of any logarithmic methods or engaging five accountants to assist me in such a simple calculation as this, but if "Fairplay" & Co. cannot see that 2 plus 2 make 4, then "Goodnight." I am, Sir, Yours, etc.,

OBSERVER.

March 16, 1922.

If "Fairplay" will take the trouble of referring to "Whitaker's Almanack" for 1922, page 455, which was handled by me for the purpose of arguing with him adopting the English value of the Escudo, he will see that I have given above the correct equivalents, which though in English he absolutely ignored.

Military Man May Be Shantung Tuchun

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, March 13.—It is unofficially reported that a proposal is under consideration to appoint General Chang Huei-chih, Chief of the General Staff, as Tuchun of Shantung, his present post being taken over by the former Inspector-General of Hunan and Hupeh, General Wang Chang-yuan.

It is further reported that General Tien Chung-yu, now Tuchun of Shantung, has suggested the nomination of General Chang Huei-pin as Military Commissioner of Tsingtao, but this, it is understood, will not be decided without careful consideration as a civil administration would, in many quarters, be considered preferable.

Total Eclipse Of Sun To Supply Test Of Einstein Theory

(China Press Service)
Berkeley, Cal. Feb. 21.—Observations to test the validity of the Einstein theory of relativity are to be made by the University of California in Australia, during the total eclipse of the sun on September 21 of this year, as the result of a recent gift of $7000 to the university by William H. Crocker, for many years a member of the board of regents.

The official announcement of the work to be done says:

"Present plans include a preliminary observing program of nine weeks, to be conducted at Tahiti by R. J. Trumpler, assistant astronomer in the Lick Observatory, to be followed by actual observations of the eclipse at the Ninety-Mile Beach, under the personal direction of W. W. Campbell, astronomer and director of the Lick Observatory.

"The narrow path of the eclipse of September 21 will begin near Abyssinia, extend easterly across the Maldive Islands, over Christmas Island (South of Java), enter the northwest coast of Australia on the Ninety-Mile Beach, cross Australia in a southeasterly direction, and end near New Zealand. The northwest coast of Australia is, astronomically, the best point from which to observe the eclipse phenomena, because the duration of totality is there the longest (5 minutes 18 seconds), the altitude of the sun above the horizon is high (58 degrees), and the weather conditions are the most favorable (almost rainless and cloudless in the average September).

"Since no other American expedition was in prospect, Dr. Campbell at once entered into correspondence with Australian astronomers, and with their cooperation the Australian Government and navy agreed to provide a ship from the Australian Navy to transport the University of California expedition and any other expeditions from Fremantle, Australia, to the Ninety-Mile Beach and return."

Boy Emperor Chose Bride From Dozen Photographs

(Chung Mei News Agency)
Peking, March 13.—In selecting the granddaughter of General Chang Hsun, who was governor of Kirin under the Manchu regime, to be his wife, the young ex-emperor is reported in the vernacular papers to have chosen from twelve photographs which were submitted to him for his approval.

No official announcement of the betrothal has been made but it seems to be authentic that Hsuan Tung will marry some time next fall. The betrothal ceremony was attended by all the officials of the Manchu household who were dressed for the occasion in the old-time court costumes worn for such special events.

The ex-emperor has not yet chosen a concubine but the vernacular papers state that he will soon take this step also.

Grafters Eager To Buy Silence In Loan Thefts

(Chung Mei Service)
Peking, March 13.—Some $325,000 will be paid four local daily papers, two local news agencies, and two lawyers, if they successfully attack, discredit, and halt Tung Kang, Minister of Justice, and his Commission of Investigation of the Foreign and Domestic Short-Term Loans in their proceedings against former finance officials, according to reports in the vernacular press. Two former ministers of finance closely connected with the loans in question, will provide the money for this campaign.

Writing under the assumed name of Chang Shun, an unknown contributor to a local paper opened the campaign against Tung Kang yesterday morning. In the attack it is tried to belittle Tung Kang's efforts to publish unfavorable reports on graft in matters of loans during the recent past. The purpose of the attack is to dissolve the commission and to force Tung Kang to resign. Results are not yet apparent but Tung may turn to investigate these new angles also.

Duty Proposal News To Churchill

(Reuter's Service)
London, March 15.—In the House of Commons today Mr. Winston Churchill denied the suggestion of Colonel Sir Walter de Frece to the effect the Dutch rubber planters had intimated their willingness to join the rubber restriction scheme if the shilling duty on Java and Sumatra tea as compared with the ten pence on British green tea was remitted.

FINNS AID RUSSIA

(Rosta News Agency)
Moscow, March 12.—The Social-Democratic party of Finland has collected 35,000 Finnish marks for Russian famine relief.
